

Aerotropolis World Summit 2018

9 – 12 October 2018

Singapore

Premier Summit for Leading Airport City Developers, Airport Operators, Urban Planning Authorities and Real Estate Groups to at the Development of Aerotropolis!

Modern airports are finding themselves more profoundly integrated in cities' urban planning & development. As non-aeronautical and aviation-related businesses increasingly locate themselves at major airport hubs, commercial airports are widely recognized as significant drivers of business centres and catalysts for urban economic growth.

Hosted in Singapore between 9-12 October 2018, the Aerotropolis World Summit 2018 aims at gathering the World's leaders and decision-makers across key stakeholders of Aerotropolis projects, including urban development authorities/ministries, airport operators, project developers and investors. With its global panel of speakers, the event offers over 18 international case studies, 4 separately organized workshops, various roundtables and unlimited networking opportunities which enables participants to maximize effectiveness in planning and developing their airport city projects!
